ABOUT ME

As a graphic designer with over ten years of experience in various media, I have worked for some of Philadelphia's most prestigious design firms, and have a strong foundation of skills in web development, print design, typography, and composition. With this skill set and a clean design sense, I have helped a variety of clients, from major corporations to small non-profit organizations, in reaching their goals.

It is my hope to continue to grow my abilities in an environment conducive to mutual success and development. I am a fast study, extremely adaptive, and have a passion for design. I believe my hands-on experience in organizing and managing multiple projects and my keen eye for detail would be a vital asset to your design team.
